Government Restrictions Control Your Interest in

OSAGE COUNTY OKLAHOMA

He Guards the Osage

FIRST-The land of Osage County is owned by the Osage Tribe, all of which is supervised by the Department of the Interior, United States Government, with offices at Pawhuska. Okla. The many sales held in this county by the government have been for the sales of oil and gas leases only. The total of these sales amounts to $31,000,000.

SECOND-When leases are proved and delivered to the lessee, it is required by the government that a test well shall b drilld within 12 months from that date, and to assure that such a well shall be drilled it is necessary for the lessee to place with the government a $50,000 bond, to show good faith. It is further required by the government that the lessee shall have financial support enough to complete the first test well before said lessee is permitted to erect the necessary rig for this operation.

THIRD-During the drilling operations it is required by the government that a daily report or log of the well shall be delivered in the office of the government official at Pawhuska. This is required for the purpose of assisting the lessee and protecting the interest of the Indians.

FOURTH-No well shall be drilled within 300 feet of the dividing lines of each quarter section, thus making the disfance to an off-setting well 600 feet. Each well within the quarter section must be drilled at a distance of 510 feet from any well producing oil.

FIFTH-Should the lessee, while in the operation of drilling, meet with an accident, such as a cave-in, or the loss of a string of tools, it is necessary to obtain special permission from the Department of the Interior, at Washington, D. C., before this well can be abandoned and another well drilled. When such cases occur permission is often granted by the officials to erect a rig at a distance of twenty feet from the abandoned well.

SIXTH-Because of these very rigid restrictions in Osage County it is impossible for the schemer or faker to operate here.

PRESENT DRILLING

THE MEMPHIS-OSAGE OIL & REFINING CO. is at the present time drilling well in the S.W. 1-4 of the N.E. 1-4 of Section 28, Township 27 North, Range 10 East, and as this paper goes to press the drill point is about a thousand feet below the surface of the ground.

The requirements in the first test well is a distance of 2,000 to 2,400 feet, this being considered a fair test by the government officials. Omiting delays or accidents, it is possible to drill about 50 feet each 24 hours, and from this it can readily be seen that within thirty days' time THE MEMPHIS-OSAGE OIL & REFINING CO. will have struck oil, or will have completed their first test.

NEARBY PRODUCTION

Traveling in a northeasterly direction a distance less than a half mile from the location of our present drilling operations the first producing well is to be found. Drawing a line directly to the east a distance less than two miles more strong producing wells will be found; and again drawing a line from the present location in a southeasterly direction a distance less than a mile one would locate wells producing some of the best oil found in this country. In all, within a radius of three miles more than 168 producing wells are daily producing approximately 6,000 bar-
